

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

DELEGATES TO THE ELEVENTH NATIONAL 4-H CLUB CAMP

Washington, D. C., June 17 - 23, 1937

OHIO

Delegate	County
Herbert M. Barnes	Paulding
Florence Edgerton	Belmont
Jane Louise Grierson.	Franklin
Edgar Jones	Lorain

Mr. Barnes has been a 4-H club member 7 years. He has had experience in dairying, colt, and sow and litter projects. He was an active member of several local and county livestock judging teams. Herbert has been an entrant in local, county, and State health contests. He has been awarded two trips to the State fair.

He has filled the offices of assistant leader, secretary, reporter, and recreation leader.

* * * *

Miss Edgerton, who lives on a 40-acre farm, has completed 8 years of club work including canning, gardening, cooking, nutrition, and clothing.

She has been a member of a demonstration team, entered two county health contests and the county style revue.

Florence has won trips to the State fair and the State Club Congress. She has been assistant local leader, secretary, reporter, vice president, and president of her club.

* * * *

Miss Grierson selected sewing as her club project in 1930 and has carried it throughout her entire membership.

She has exhibited clothing at the State fair each year, winning first prize in 1935 and 1936. In the county style show of 1934 she was the winner.

Jane won a trip to the State 4-H Club Congress in 1935. She has filled the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, reporter, secretary, and president of her club.

* * * *

Mr. Jones has specialized in dairying during 10 years of club work, adding from time to time, corn, colt, and ton-litter work.

He has represented his club on the livestock judging team, won first in showmanship, and placed second on his exhibit of calves at the State fair. Edgar has been awarded a trip to the State 4-H Club Congress. He has filled all the offices of his club.

Extension Service,
U. S. Department of Agriculture.